

Bridport Green Fortnight

14 - 28 April 2018

For more details please go to our website www.transitiontownbridport.co.uk

Transition Town Bridport

14 Apr 3 pm	Page to Screen showing of Soylent Green , followed by a discussion led by Raja Jarrah.	BAC
14 Apr 7.30pm	Green Fortnight Launch night Matilda Manley of Litter Free Dorset and Martin Maudsley, story teller, and pitches from local groups	Bridport Town Hall FREE. Refreshments provided
16 Apr 2-3pm & 24 Apr 11-12am	Visit to Broomhills Waste Recycling Centre. What happens to the plastics we recycle?	FREE. Book at TIC or tinyurl.com/ybhg6d8g
17 Apr 10-12	What happens to plastic cotton-wool buds and other flushed items? Visit a sewage farm in Dorchester.	FREE. Book at TIC or tinyurl.com/ybhg6d8g
17 Apr 8.00pm	Green Quiz. Come as a team or just turn up and make new friends! Raffle with fabulous prizes.	Ropemakers. FREE
18 Apr 7.30pm	Going Green - a Matter of Belief. A discussion of the relationship between faith and environmental issues	United Church, East St FREE
19 Apr 7.30pm	'There's a lot of rubbish talked about Plastic': Julia Hailes, author of Green Consumer guide and blogger, looks at whether we can or should go plastic-free.	Bridport Town Hall. *
22 Apr 10.30am-12.30pm	Family Beach Clean. Come with walking shoes and gloves, all equipment provided. Part of the Great Dorset Beach Clean	West Bay: steps down to West Beach
22 Apr 7.30pm	'A Plastic Ocean'. More than 8 million tons of plastic is dumped into our oceans every year. This film looks at what this is doing to our wildlife, and offers solutions.	Bridport Town Hall. *
25 Apr 9.30am	Market day with stalls from Transition Town Bridport, Friends of the Earth, Wessex Water and Dorset Waste Partnership. Muslim shopping bags from Turn Lyme Green on sale.	BuckyDoo Square
27 Apr 7.30pm	Matt Harvey and Friends: Stories to inspire and entertain Matt Harvey, poet and comedian, Ged Duncan, storyteller, and Simon and Tracey West. Kelvin Clayton on Changing the Narrative, using stories	Bridport Town Hall. *

* £4.50 in advance from Tourist Information Centre (TIC), or online, or £5 or 5 NETs on the door.
Under 18s go free! Refreshments provided.

- An artist is currently working with St Mary's School creating 'Stories in a Bottle - how plastics are destroying our marine life'. Local sculptor Peter Margerum, ran a workshop at Loders School creating marine sculptures with discarded plastic.
- Transition Town Bridport have produced a directory of shops in Bridport which sell goods with plastic-free packaging. We are examining which alternatives offer a truly sustainable solution.

